Light in darkness

a Christmas song
for St Thomas', Trowbridge

Stuart Brown

Calmly majestic ♩ = 97

The first system of the score consists of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. Both staves contain whole rests for the first four measures, indicating that the music begins with a four-measure rest.

The second system of the score consists of two staves. The treble staff begins with a piano (pp.) marking and contains a series of chords and moving lines. The bass staff contains a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The third system of the score consists of two staves. The treble staff has a measure rest followed by a double bar line and then a chord. The bass staff has a measure rest followed by a double bar line and then a chord. The lyrics are: "Christ the liv ing / Dream- ing of a / Hear the an - gels".

The fourth system of the score consists of two staves. The treble staff begins with a piano (p.) marking and contains a melodic line with eighth notes and chords. The bass staff contains a melodic line with eighth notes and chords. The system concludes with a double bar line and the word delicately.
